

Crowan School Newsletter – 26th May 2023

HALF TERM AND INSET DAY

Please remember we are closed next week for half term and on MONDAY 5th JUNE for staff training. We look forward to seeing all the children again on Tuesday 6th June.

Congratulations to this week's certificate winners:

Releath: Jacob and Ollie

Trenoweth: Vinnie, Billy and Terry

Pengelly: Cooper, Charlie B, Sophia and Daisy

Crenver: Poppy E and Bibi

FOOTBALL

Well done to our amazing footballers who won again last evening 2-0. All the league matches have been played and we are currently joint first. We are now awaiting a decision on how the league will be decided! Watch this space...

OUT OF SCHOOL ACHIEVEMENTS

Thank you so much for all your out of school achievements, the children love seeing themselves on our display board. Keep sending them in and we will make this a regular feature on the newsletter!

Attendance

Releath: 96.0%

Trenoweth: 97.0%

Pengelly: 96.1%

Crenver: 96.8%

Well Done Trenoweth!

The target for the school is 96%

SUNCREAM AND SUNHATS

The staff are not able to apply suncream so please ensure your child has it applied before leaving home, or can apply it themselves. Hats are also advised if this sunny weather continues! Thank you

This week's 'Out of School Achievements' are...

...a new bike rider who no longer needs stabilisers

...a first football training session for Porthleven minis. He was awarded player of the week for his enthusiasm, listening skills and for not giving up!

....a triathlete who was 1st in 2 races for the 9-10 age group so is currently first on the leader board. He competes for Momentum Junior Triathlon club and for Crowan School, gaining points in both the club and school's leader boards as well as the individual.

...a Pretty Muddy 5km runner. She did it in super fast time, and raised a lot of money for Cancer Research.

...two swimming superstars who swam 15m and one also managed to float on her back for several minutes!

....a red belt taekwondo grading

....a show jumping Arena eventer, competing in an event organised by Newquay Riding Club. She won the Junior 12 and under class, and came 5th in the 60cm class.

WELL DONE ALL OF YOU, WE ARE SO PROUD!
